

Directions to the Chicago Yacht Club – Belmont Station

From South:

Take Lake Shore Drive north to Belmont. Exit Belmont and pull a right U-turn at the base of the ramp. Continue south along the small road that runs parallel to the bike path until you reach the two parking lots. Enter the boaters' parking lot on the left (north) and continue to the end until you reach the Belmont barges.

From North:

Take Lake Shore Drive south to Belmont. Exit Belmont and turn left (east) at the light at the base of the ramp. Drive under the overpass and continue through until you can turn right (south) on the small road that runs parallel to the bike path. Continue along this road until you reach the two parking lots. Enter the boaters' parking lot on the left (north) and continue to the end until you reach the Belmont barges.

Going West on I-90/94 (which is actually in a more northerly direction)

Take I-90/94 west to Belmont. Exit Belmont and turn right (east) at the light at the base of the ramp. Continue east on Belmont until you go under the Lake Shore Drive overpass and dead end at the lake. Turn right on the small road that runs parallel to the bike path. Continue along this road until you reach the two parking lots. Enter the boaters' parking lot on the left (north) and continue to the end until you reach the Belmont barges.

Going East on I-90/94 (which is actually in a more southerly direction)

Take I-90/94 east to Kimball. Exit Kimball and turn right at the base of the ramp. Stay in the left lane. Take a left at the very next light (Belmont). Continue east on Belmont until you go under the Lake Shore Drive overpass and dead end at the lake. Turn right on the small road that runs parallel to the bike path. Continue along this road until you reach the two parking lots. Enter the boaters' parking lot on the left (north) and continue to the end until you reach the Belmont barges.
