

Power Fleet Cruise to Saugatuck Farm to Table Tour

Saturday, August 11

Farm to Table Tour departures from Singapore Yacht Club at 10am Eastern. Tour includes Blue Star Farms, a family owned farm located between Saugatuck and Douglas where you'll have a chance to pick up fresh blueberries.

At Fenn Valley Vineyards we will have a private guided wagon tour through the vineyards with ten or more wine tastings as we enjoy the ride through the fields of the various varieties of grapes.

We've included a stop at one of the most famous orchards in Western Michigan at Crane's Wine and Cider, where you will tour and sample their international award winning hard cider! For your sweet tooth, there is also the Crane Pie Pantry where desserts are made using the freshest fruit straight from their orchards.

After a beautiful day outdoors, the tour concludes with a three course gourmet lunch with complimentary libations of wine & beer, at one of the most sought after farm-to-table restaurants in the area, Salt of the Earth. Enjoy this opportunity to be in a culinary paradise!

Once back in town, you will have plenty of time to take in all that Saugatuck has to offer. From boutique shops to fantastic art galleries, there is so much to explore.

$90/head includes all transportation, wagon ride & wine sampling, and hard cider tour & tasting, as well as a three-course lunch with complimentary libations of wine and beer.

Participants need to be over 21 to join tour.

There are a limited number of seats in the transportation vehicle, so sign up soon!
