

FRED A. PRICE MEMORIAL

The Price Memorial Trophy was presented in 1936 by the widow of Commodore Fred A. Price through the efforts of Commodore Hollis E. Potter.

This trophy was originally presented to the Lake Michigan Yachting Association in 1910 by Sir Thomas Lipton as a challenge cup. Provisions in the deed awarded the trophy permanently to the first three time winner. William Hale "Big Bill" Thompson, Commodore 1911 and 1912, mayor --- won in 1910 and 1911 with Valmore. Fred Price (Commodore 1920), won in 1912 with Michicago, in 1913 with Olympian but in partnered ownership, in 1914 and 1915 with Valiant. The engraving titling the trophy as the Fred A. Price Memorial Trophy is actually on the back of this silver piece with the Thomas Lipton engraving remaining on the front.
